

السلام علیکم۔ آپ کا کیا نام ہے؟

assalāmu ‘alaikum. āp kā kyā nām hai?
May peace be upon you (greeting). What is your name?

وعلیکم السلام۔ میرا نام شیرین ہے۔ اور آپ کا؟

va ‘alaikum assalām. merā nām shīrīn hai. aur āp kā?
And upon you peace. My name is Shireen, and yours?

میرا نام وجیہہ ہے۔ آپ کہاں سے ہیں؟

merā nām vajīhā hai. āp kahān se haiñ?
My name is Wajiha. Where are you from?

میں ہیوسٹن سے ہوں۔ کیا آپ بھی ہیوسٹن سے ہیں؟

maiñ hīusṭon se hūñ. kyā āp bhī hīusṭon se haiñ?
I am from Houston. Are you from Houston too?

نہیں۔ میں ہیوسٹن سے نہیں ہوں، میں اسلام آباد سے ہوں۔

nahīñ, maiñ hīusṭon se nahīñ hūñ. maiñ islāmābād se hūñ.
No, I am not from Houston. I am from Islamabad.

اچھا۔ آپ سے مل کر خوشی ہوئی۔ پھر ملیں گے۔

ačchā. āp se mil ker xušī hūī. phir mileñge.
I see. It was nice to meet you. See you later (lit. We'll meet again).

مجھے بھی۔ خدا حافظ۔

mujhe bhī. xudā hāfiz.
Me too. Good bye (lit. God protect)

Vocabulary from this Dialogue:

assalāmu ‘alaikum response: va ‘alaikum assalām	hello [greeting] [lit. May peace be upon you & and upon you peace]
āp kā	yours [possessive adjective]
kyā	what, question indicator
nām	name
hai	(he/she/it) is [to be verb]
merā	my
aur	and
kahān	where
se	from [postposition]
haiñ	(you formal/they) are [to be verb]
maiñ	I
hūñ	am
bhī	also, too
nahīñ	no
ačchā	okay, I see, good
mil [milnā]	meet [infinitive: to meet]
kar [karnā]	do [infinitive: to do]
xuśī	happiness
X hūī	became X
phir	later, then, again
mileñge	will meet [future]
mujhe	me, I
xudā hāfiz	goodbye hello [greeting] [lit. May God protect you]

Be Verbs: honā

I	am	maiñ hūñ	ہوں	میں
You	are	āp haiñ	ہیں	آپ
He/she/it	is	yih hai vuh hai	ہے	وہ
We	are	ham haiñ	ہیں	ہم
They	are	vuh haiñ	ہیں	وہ

Note: there are other ways to say “you” which is shown in the tum version of this episode.

Additional sentences you can form from the vocabulary learned in this lesson:

vuh kahān se haiñ?
Where is he/she/it from?

yih kahān hai?
Where is this?

āp kā nām mujhe ačchā lagā.
I like your name.

Can you think of others? Be sure to share it with the Patreon Community!